I. Background

For the purpose of coordination and function, the financial aid and scholarship processes have been centralized in the Financial Aid Office. This office is responsible for the administration of Federal, State, and Private financial assistance programs offered at Aiken Technical College.

II. Objective and Function

The Financial Aid Scholarship Committee recommends and/or establishes policies and written procedures for the criteria, selection, and awarding process for ATC scholarships. The committee will select recipients of the various scholarships according to the criteria and procedures set forth for said scholarships.

III. Membership

This committee will include a representative from each of the following functional areas within the College:

Administrative Services
Education Division
Student Services
ATC Foundation Board
Resource Development

IV. Meetings

Committee meetings will be called as required.
